Saturday 16 November    *St Margaret, Queen of Scotland

Queen Margaret and her sister were exiled from England by Canute and, after a time at the court of Edward the Confessor, by William the Conqueror also. They were captured by Malcolm III of Scotland and he married Margaret. She had a remarkable effect on him and his court; drunkenness and debauchery were curbed or stopped and Court ladies were treated with respect. Malcolm was devoted to her and she taught him to pray. Poor people were brought into the palace daily and fed by Margaret and Malcolm. Many Norman prisoners who had been captured by the Scots were ransomed and sent back to England. She founded an abbey in Dunfermline and persuaded Malcolm to rebuild the monastery at Iona. Three of her sons became Kings of Scotland and a daughter married Henry I of England.

St Edmund, King of the Angles

Edmund the Martyr or Edmund of East Anglia was king of East Anglia until his death. Edmund is thought to have been born in 841, descended from nobility and to have acceded to the East Anglian throne around 855. In 869, Edmund was killed (in battle) having refused to renounce Christ; said to have been wounded by many arrows and decapitated. When later exhumed, all the arrow wounds upon Edmund's corpse had healed and his head was reattached; the only evidence of decapitation was a line around his neck and his skin was still soft and fresh, as if he had been sleeping; the last recorded inspection was in 1198. Edmund is the patron saint of pandemics as well as kings, the Roman Catholic diocese of East Anglia, and Douai Abbey in Berkshire. Pre the middle ages, Edmund was regarded as the patron saint of England.

Friday 30 November      St Andrew the Apostle

According to John 1.40 Andrew was a disciple of John the Baptist and went to tell his brother Simon "We have found the Messiah" and brought Simon to Jesus. He is repeatedly mentioned in the Gospels, particularly in relation to the Feeding of the Multitude (John 6.8-10). There are many apocryphal stories developed about Andrew. Jerome says he was martyred in Greece; other accounts say he went to Syria or Ethiopia. He became a patron saint of Russia and the chief patron saint of Scotland. The saltire, or diagonal cross of St Andrew, now part of the Union Flag, was not known until the 10th century.

God for All Prayer

God for all,
You reached out to the world in your Son Jesus Christ.
Help us to reach out in faith and love and witness to all.

God for all,
you send your Holy Spirit to empower and gift your Church.
By your Spirit help us
grow in unity,
grow as followers of Jesus Christ,
and grow in your kingdom in Cumbria and in this world
Amen
