Basil the Great

Basil the Great, (329-368) was the eldest son of Christian parents from Asia Minor. He visited monasteries in Syria, Egypt, Palestine and Mesopotamia and spent a period time as a hermit and founded a monastery on the River Pontus. He assisted Bishop Eusebius for some years and then succeeded him. He defended orthodoxy against Arianism and established the Basilica, a hospital for the sick and poor; his influence affected both Eastern and Western churches.

Diocese of Southern Ohio, The Episcopal Church, The Right Revd Thomas Breidenthal.
Diocese of Southern Philippines, Province of the Philippines. The Right Revd Danilo Labacanacruz Bustamante. The clergy and people.

The Province is the oldest in Africa. British Anglicans met for worship in Cape Town after 1806, with the first Bishop appointed in 1847. The 23 dioceses of the Province extend beyond the Republic of South Africa and include the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (St Helena and Tristan da Cunha), Mozambique (Lebombo and Niassa), the Republic of Namibia, the Kingdom of Lesotho, the Kingdom of Swaziland and Angola.

Historically a Spanish colony, the Philippines were predominantly Roman Catholic. When Americans colonized the country in 1898, Anglican missionary work began in the north and the south. The Church consecrated its first Bishop in 1963, four dioceses were established by 1971 and became an autonomous Province in 1990.

William Laud* (1573 – 1645)

William Laud was an English bishop and academic. He was the Archbishop of Canterbury from 1633, during the rule of Charles I, who admired Laud's learning and valued his advice. As well as his church preferments, Laud became increasingly powerful in affairs of state and was appointed to several important offices close to the King. In matters of church politics Laud was autocratic and he enforced a collection of rules in order to maintain uniform worship in England and Wales, in line with the king's preferences. Arrested in 1640, he was executed in 1645.

God for All Prayer

God for all,
You reached out to the world
in your Son Jesus Christ.
Help us to reach out in faith and love and witness to all.

God for all,
you send your Holy Spirit
to empower and gift your Church.

By your Spirit help us
grow in unity,
grow as followers of Jesus Christ,
and grow in your kingdom
in Cumbria and in this world
Amen
