What's your pathway? On Vocations Sunday here are some questions and thoughts to discuss with your Fresh Expressions and Pioneering groups

Table Talk

Share with someone else what you wanted to be when you grew up. Is that what you are doing now? Is it different? How?

Children or young people: what would you like to be when you grow up? What do you think is the most interesting thing about that job?

Everyone - is there anyone else in your family doing the same job as you, or that you'd like to do?

Find the person who's been in their job the longest - what do they enjoy most about their work?

The activity below can be adapted to use with young people.

On a walk stand at a sign post or gate, thinking about your life...

THE PAST

Look back, what has brought you to this point?

THE FUTURE

Look forward, where do you want to go next?

Stand on high place. look out. What is important to your future, what difference do you want to make in the world?

If I could do anything I'd...

Do you want to work with your....

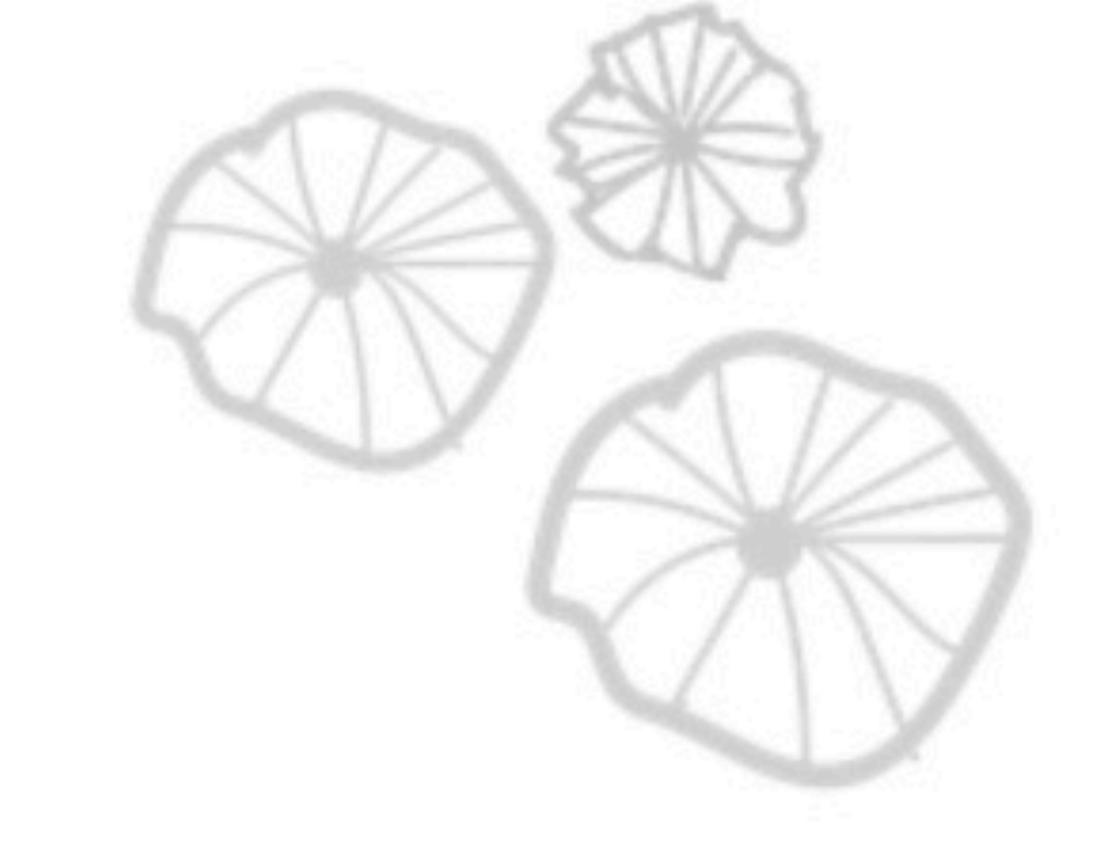

Circle your favourite

Question - Think of someone you admire, what is it about them that is inspiring? Are they memorable because their passions and vocation aligned?

Question - How well balanced do you feel your vocation is between 'pressure to provide' and doing what you really want to do?

Mind map your gifts and skills - how would you like to use them in a job now or in the future?

Do this activity as individuals, alternatively in small groups write your name on the top of a piece of paper pass these around and write down what you think each others skills and gifts are.

Question - Do you have the freedom to be who you really want to be?
