

What level do safeguarding training do church officers need?

The Church of England's Safeguarding Learning and Development Framework 2024 sets out the details of the Church's safeguarding learning pathways for all church officers. This framework has been approved by the House of Bishops and must be followed by all Church Bodies and Church Officers.

The Diocese of Carlisle has prepared a Parish Safeguarding Training Matrix to assist you with identifying the safeguarding courses required for each church officer role. Click below to access the Quick Guide and the Parish Safeguarding Training Matrix.
