

Operations Manager

St. Aidan's Cumbria, Derwent Deanery

St. Aidan's Cumbria exists to see God's Kingdom come in Cumbria as it is in heaven. We are a growing contemporary, charismatic and evangelical Anglican church in the northern Lake District, committed to following Jesus, building Christian community, and contending for revival.

We are seeking an Operations Manager to help develop and manage the systems, structures and organisational foundations that will enable our mission to flourish. Working closely with the Vicar, Trustees and Leadership Team, you will oversee key areas including finance, administration, governance and compliance, helping ensure the church is healthy, sustainable and ready for future growth.

This is an exciting opportunity to join St. Aidan's in a formative season. As we continue to grow, develop new leaders and plant new churches and Christian communities across Cumbria, this role will play a vital part in creating the operational capacity that makes mission possible.

If you love Jesus, believe the local church matters, and want to use your gifts to help build healthy systems and processes that enable mission, discipleship and church planting, we would love to hear from you.

This is a part-time position with potential to increase in future year, externally funded initially until 2030.

Location: Derwent Deanery, Cumbria
